Food Donations from St Saviour's Church

We would like to thank the kindness of the parishioners at our church, St Saviour's on Lewisham High Street. Recently Father Chris has asked parishioners to make any food donations they can to help our families during this time of increased costs and high bills.
We take the welfare of our children, both in and out of school, very seriously and the generosity of the parish has not only stunned us but also given support to many families in need.
If you are struggling with making ends meet, please come and see the office staff and they will be happy to help out.
